“ Years ago I was watching neighbors house for her while she was out of town. When I entered house it was filled with smoke. Called 911 - when fire trucks arrived, Al was suited up. He picked stove (source of smoke) up BY HIMSELF and carried it outside. Apparently igniter shorted out causing oven to turn itself on full blast. He told me it was probably 500 degrees. Iron skillet stored inside caused smoke. My love to his family. I'm so sorry for your loss. ?
