

Andrew Evan Croyle

April 11, 1962 - February 3, 2022

Andrew Evan Croyle, 59, of McDonough, GA, formerly of North Judson, passed away on Feb. 3 at Tranquility Hospice in Marietta, GA after a sudden illness. He was born April 11, 1962 in South Bend, Indiana to Paul and Kay Croyle, who survive. He is also survived by his brothers, Peter and John (Julie) Croyle, his niece, Cameron Croyle, his cat Sneaky Pete, his special friend, Danielle Moyer DeLane, and many other friends. He was predeceased by maternal grandparents, Howard L. and Esther Weninger of North Judson, Indiana and paternal grandparents, Chauncey and Hazel Croyle of Union City, Indiana.

Andrew graduated from North Judson-San Pierre High School in 1980 where he was on the football and golf teams. Andrew was named All State 1st Team Offensive Tackle his senior year. He also held the lowest 9-hole golf score for any golfer at that time. He then attended Western Illinois University and graduated from St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Indiana. He played football at both schools.

Most of his working years were spent in the semi-trailer sales and leasing industry in Indianapolis, Evansville, Chicago, Tampa, and the past 20 years in Atlanta. He was a big fan of Ohio State football, the Chicago Bears, the Indianapolis 500 and the Daytona 500. Andrew was known to many by his childhood nickname, Yogi. His almost larger-than-life fun-loving nature and sense of humor were shared and enjoyed by all who knew him. Andrew's coworkers were like family to him, and he also loved entertaining and cooking for his many friends.

“ I haven't seen Yogi for many years, but the news shook me to my core. We usually saw each other in the halls and every weekend during high school, but our roads diverged in our twenties. There wasn't an Indy 500 that I attended or watched that I didn't think of Yogi and I throwing a few back with our band of racing buddies.

One thing you could bank on, whenever Yogi was around, good times weren't far behind.

Bobby's right. We should celebrate a life well lived.

So here's to Andrew Croyle. A friend to many, foe to none, and all around great friend. SKOL!

“ yogi is my best friend we talked weekly went to indy together everyyear its gonna be really hard to do life without him everytime i turn around i either need to call him or give him some NEWS theres not enough words to explain life without yogi we always talked about death and we always said we hate funerals why would somebody want to be sad in closing yogi was a god to me and when they say bigger than life i think they meant yogi lets not mourn yogi life but celebrate and throw a party as he would have wanted

“ Many fond memories of Andrew during high school. Really fun guy with a big, generous heart and great to hang around with during high school years. Warmest wishes and deepest sympathies to his surviving family (including Peter, his brother) who i also recall.

Andrew is a great friend with a larger- than- life persona. We had some incredibly fun times and lots of intriguing, jovial conversations. Andrew's commitment as a friend and as the best man at my wedding will always be significant and appreciated. I'll miss the laughs, and even a few tears. See you on the other side, Yogi!
