“ I met Andy at daily Mass at St. Matthias church where we worshiped our Lord and Savior. He was always inquiring about the health of members that were ill. May his soul soar with the angels.

“ Andy and I became friends when teaching 6th grade classes in Crown Point in 1968. We remained friends and golfing partners with our last tour of the course September 2025!

A moment on the course most remembered occurred when Andy hit his iron shot high and over the water on a par three hole as we watched it bounced on the green and rolled into the hole for a HOLE IN ONE!

A golfing goal he had always hoped to achieve!

We had many other great times together which I will always treasure!

What defines Andy most throughout all those years were his kindness and friendliness — A TRUE GENTLEMAN!
