

Angela K McMeans

January 10, 1974 - November 28, 2020

Heaven received another angel on Saturday, November 28th, 2020. Angela K. McMeans was 46 years old and had a lot of struggles in her life. In the end Angie wasn't able to see, hear or walk. Now she is laughing, singing and dancing in heaven. She was a daddy's girl and is now reunited with her dad, Lewis Clifford Jones. They are probably off fishing somewhere together as they often did when she was growing up.

Angela grew up in San Pierre, Indiana. She was born January 10, 1974 in Rensselaer, Indiana. She graduated from North Judson- San Pierre schools and started working for Our Lady of the Holy Cross for many years.

She married Steven B. McMeans in March of 2003. They lived in San Pierre, Medaryville and then Lafayette, Indiana where she later died. They had a son Cameron S. McMeans and he was her pride and joy. She always talked about her boy. He was in her thoughts daily.

Her favorite movie was Wizard of Oz. Her favorite show was Little House on the Prairie. She sure wanted to help Laura give Nellie what for. Angie had a few Nellies in her life. Chicago Bears was her favorite team and don't go dissing them.

She loved doing crafts, sewing and making unique homemade gifts for everyone. Angie loved giving as much as receiving. She was loved by many especially her family. It is a big family with many brothers, sisters, niece's, nephew's, and cousins that she adored and they loved her too. Angie didn't want to miss a family get together. She liked to bring her famous ham roll ups. They were gone almost as fast as she would put them out.

Angie is survived by her husband Steven McMeans and her son Cameron McMeans. Her mother Beverly (Alexander) Jones. Brothers, Lewis J. Jones, John (Kim) Jones, William Jones. Sisters, Sherry (Charlie) Shirley and Mary (Dan) Wildman. Also many nieces, nephew's, aunts, uncles and cousins.

“ My memories of Angie are many. She was a Brownie in the San Pierre troop I headed. She always wanted to help, so full of joy. After scouts it was on to basketball. She earned the respect of her Lady Jay teammates for her desire and dedication to the sport. When she played everyone was cheering her on. Later in life I would occasionally come across Angie. She always would stop to talk. She was filled with love. So sorry for your loss, but so glad she is at peace. Prayers to all “ *ANGIE was a very sweet young lady. Always giving and loving. Her son Cameron was the light of her life. She will be greatly missed, but she is now whole again and at peace with her Dad. We had the pleasure of having Cliff and Bev "adopt us" Frank and My parents already had passed. Love to all "Mom" and Sisters Sherry, and Mary, brothers Jim, John and Bill.
