In Loving Memory of Annie Carol Manns

July 7, 1965 – February 15, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of our beloved Annie Carol Manns, who peacefully left this world on February 15, 2025, at 59. Born in Winamac, Indiana, on July 7, 1965, Annie lived in North Judson, Indiana, her entire life.

Annie's greatest joy and devotion was her family. Her children Justin Sanchez, Sara Norris, and Waylon Hurt will carry on her wisdom and love in their hearts. She adored her grandchildren Damian, Naomi, Lily and CJ. She also found happiness in being a devoted life partner to Edward Hurt, building a life full of love and cherished memories.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Josephine Caroline Manns(1999), her grandparents, Eldridge and Rosie Rowe, and her daughter-in-law, Noria Sanchez. Annie is survived by her father, Herald Manns, her sisters, Hazel Manns and Versie Ford, her life partner, Edward Hurt, children, grandchildren, and numerous aunts, cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Annie will be remembered for her unwavering strength, nurturing spirit, and the light she brought to those around her. Her legacy of love and compassion will continue to inspire all who knew her.

Visitation will be at O'Donnell Funeral Home in North Judson, Indiana on February 20, 2025, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. CT

A visitation will be held from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. CT on February 21, 2025, at O'Donnell Funeral Home, Inc., North Judson, IN, before the funeral service at noon. Burial will follow at Highland Cemetery, North Judson, IN.

Rest in peace, Annie. You will never be forgotten.

We invite all who knew Annie to join us in celebrating her life.

“ Annie was such a huge part of my childhood. My mom and her were friends so naturally Annie's daughter Sara & I were very close. They lived acrossed the field from us. I would sneak over there any chance I got even if Sara was at her Dad's. I would sit in their kitchen while Annie cooked making her tell me story after story from her life. She had the patience of a saint, I swear. She will be greatly missed
