“ I shared a couple classes with Gus in culinary school and was surprised and saddened to learn that he passed. I happen to think of some of my old classmates today and decided to look him up. He was always in a great mood and was always one of the guys that helped make class enjoyable. My condolences go out to his friends and family.

“ Gus was the best friend I ever had... He was a good man with a kind heart, he did a lot for the community that most don't even know about, more than one $5 or $10 mowing job that hardly covered the fuel... When I die, he will be one of the first people I look up when I arrive... RIP, buddy, I'll be along down the road...

My most vivid memory comes from a 7th grade sock hop where he requested the song, the 45 RPM record, of "Surfin Bird" I had never heard that song until then. I think he brought it. It was such a zany song and fun. Well he just started dancing with abandon. I loved it. I think of him whenever I hear that song.

My (non blood related) uncle Gus was such a great guy and he was the best human being I've ever met. He was so wide and he radiated happiness and joy. I'm truly blessed to have met Gus. I'm still coping with the loss at the age of 15 I'm failing classes and I'm barely getting by. Gus I hope you know I love you dearly bud.
