

Barbara Scammerhorn

April 12, 1942 - March 1, 2023

Barbara Ellen Scammerhorn, age 80, passed away March 1, 2023 after fighting a long battle with COPD. She was born April 12, 1942 in Winamac, Indiana to Frank and Theresa Nowak. She married Wayne Scammerhorn in June of 1963, who preceded her in death in 2007. Her daughter, Rebecca Scammerhorn Mullins, also preceded her in death in 1990.

Barb was a graduate of North Judson High School, a lifelong resident of North Judson, a dedicated CVS employee prior to her retirement, as well as the Halloween Shenanigans Coordinator of the famous “Witches on George Street”. She made the most amazing kolaczki and decorated the most spectacular of Christmas trees. On a warm day, she could always be found “playing in the yard” tending to her plants and flowers.

Barb is survived by her children: Marc Scammerhorn (Eva) and Erin Scammerhorn Wray (Oran), grandchildren: Andrea Mullins Brown (Corey), Scott Scammerhorn, Destie Wieligman, Joey Scammerhorn, Hannah Wieligman, Alex Bentley, Fiona Wray, Elliott Wray, great grandchildren: Lincoln Brown and Olivia Brown, and former son-in-law, Butch Mullins. She is also survived by her brothers Ray Nowak, Dennis Nowak and Jeffery Nowak (Janna) as well as many nieces and nephews.

Her service will be held graveside at St. Jacob’s cemetery in North Judson on April 15th at 11:30a CST with a lunch following.

“ My heart is with you, Erin, Marc, Andrea and all your families as you go through this time of transition. I remember Barb brought pads of paper and crayons for toddler Logan to make sure he enjoyed Erin and Oran's wedding reception in Indy. She sat with him and helped him draw. She's also still the only person I have ever known who cleaned their lightbulbs. Blessings on the next step of your journey, Barb.
