“ I grew up with Mts. Kalinke-Chesak’s son and stepson, Keith Kalinke and Robby Chesak. Betty was always one of the nicest and kindest people I had the pleasure to grow up around. My dad and Melvin would sit in the church parking lot and visit while us kids were in Sunday School. I remember when she came to my father’s viewing she said she snuck in the back door! I could tell how important it was for her to pay respect to my father Curly Holbrook. Betty will always hold a special memory in my heart. My sincere condolences to her family.
