“ I know we talked and had are time. Before coming back home last Oct. We cried laughed kissed and hugged. I cant say how thankful I was to have you in my life and my kids life to. You wasn't just there grandmother. You was there 2nd Mom. Words cant even tell you or anyone else how grateful I am and you had been to us all growing up. Good or Bad you was always on there and on are side. Strong woman you always been. Just a had 1/2 your strength. We had many good time's. I remember a time when you worked at the school. I got into trouble I would run so fast for you to help. It didn't always work. ,But again it wasn't always me starting it. Last past six months been so hard on me. Dad Sept 5th, then John mid Dec moved that had you was so happy I was happy . And be leave the family is happy also. I was thinking about the time. My kids given you a ticket knowing how much you loved playing. And you hit or thought you hit the big jackpot. You jumped up so fast out of bed. So we could go to the store. I laughed so hard. Them kids are 1/2 so you know where they all get being happy funny go lucky kind of people., Because u was 2 . I love and miss you so much already. Cant see how people think it gets easy as the days and time goes by. {NOT} R.I.P Mother until we meet again. God bless and Amen.
