

Brenda Grace McDaniel

December 2, 1946 - September 12, 2017

Brenda McDaniel, devoted wife and loving mother, went home to be with the lord September 12, 2017 at 3:40 in the morning surrounded by her children and her husband. She had fought a good fight. She kept the faith and is now resting in the paradise of God. She was a friend to everyone who knew her and was always helping others and doing anything she could to make their lives better. Her faith in God shined through the way she lived her life every single day. While fighting the biggest battle of her life, she never waived from going to church and worshipping with her family and friends. Never an unkind word came out of her mouth, and she never passed judgement on anyone. Her family meant everything to her and as long as she was with them her heart was content. The things of this world did not mean anything to her. She didn't require a big fancy house, a big nice car, or fancy clothes. None of that mattered to her. She had something in her heart that gave her what she needed. Her love for the Lord and her love for family was all she needed to be happy. She was the most humble person you could ever meet and if you were privileged enough to know her, you knew one of the best people that ever walked on this earth. Life is forever changed because of her absence in our lives but our comfort comes from knowing that this is only goodbye for a little while. There will be a reunion day someday soon where we will be reunited to spend eternity in Heaven together forever. We truly have more to go to Heaven for than we had yesterday. She is survived by her husband Ervin and her four children, Tammy Pressnell, Michelle Rudd, Devin McDaniel and Brett McDaniel. She is also survived by 11 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

John 11:25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.

Visitation will be from 4-8 PM CT Friday, September 15, 2017 at the Denham Freewill Baptist Church.

Funeral Services will be 1 PM CT Saturday, September 16, 2017 at the church with Rev. Mike Noble officiating.

Burial will be in the Denham Cemetery.

“ We are very sorry for your loss. Brenda will be missed. But we will meet her again someday in heaven. She's in a far better place now. Sending prayers to all the family. Sorry we couldn't make it Viola fell Monday night and busted her head open above her eye. She isn't feeling well, but wanted you all to know she loves all of you and is praying for the family
