

Dewey T Smith

July 22, 1948 - December 14, 2025

Dewey Thomas Smith, age 77, of Denham, Indiana, passed away on December 14th, 2025 and received his total and complete healing in the presence of his Savior.

Dewey was born on July 22, 1948, in Decoy Kentucky, to Richard and Thelma Smith.

From the very beginning he carried a quiet strength and a heart full of generosity.

Anyone who knew him knew how deeply he loved his family. Raising babies and being present with his children and grandchildren brought him some of his greatest joy.

A talented and hardworking contractor, Dewey took great pride in his craft. His work can be seen in the homes and spaces he helped build—each one a testament to his dedication, skill, and desire to serve others through what he created with his hands.

Known for his kindness and unwavering generosity, Dewey had a way of making people feel cared for and welcome. Whether helping a neighbor with a project, showing up when someone needed him, or giving without expecting anything in return, he lived his life with a rare and genuine heart.

Dewey is survived by his loving wife, Anna Smith—the love of his life. They shared 46 years of marriage filled with devotion and partnership. He is also survived by his daughters Rose (Manny) Awuku of DeKalb, TX, Janeen (Keith) Berndt of Plymouth, IN,

Deana (Harold) Collins of Plymouth, IN, and Shelley Haddix of Knox, IN; Siblings, Loretta Rowe, Judy Franscoviak, Connie Eckert, Sherry Deery, and Richard Smith Jr.

Dewey was also blessed with many grandchildren and great-grandchildren, whom he loved so deeply.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Richard and Thelma Smith; Daughter, Kimberly Smith; Son, Dewey Smith Jr.; Grandson, Preston Allen; Sister, Hattie Smith.

Dewey will be remembered forever for his love, his generosity, his laughter, and the legacy he built—both in the lives he touched and the memories he leaves behind.

The family will be having a private celebration of Dewey's life at a later time.
