“ Donna worked for me at American Oak in 1987 and was a special person. The thing I remember more than anything was her beautiful smile and her dedication to her work. God Bless her family.

“ I have loved Donna since the first time Roy introduced. I am proud to call her my niece. I sure do hate to hear of her passing but I know she is okay. Roy, my awesome nephew, my heart is breaking for you. I know your heartbreak because I went thru this Aug. 29 when your uncle Kelly passed away. I pray God will hold you in his loving arms!!

“ Donna and I met many times on the streets of North Judson when she was taking her walks. I admired her courage and determination to keep herself healthy and always enjoyed our visits. North Judson has lost another special lady and she's going to be greatly missed. Sending my sincere sympathy and prayers to all her family

“ I am so shocked as I just now read this about my classmate and Jackson Township friend Donna. She and I had such good talks at our last two reunions, the most recent of course being our 50th during Mint Festival weekend. I hope you family members will still see this, as I send most sincere sympathies and prayers to you all.
