“ First time I remember meeting Duane was at a church sponsored Halloween Party. He was having so much fun playing the games in John & Glady Tunis's basement. Then roller skating backwards very fast, his laugh & later the love he had for his kids. Then we basically lost touch except for random chance meetings. I will always remember his smile & zest for life.

“ Duane opened his home for the family to celebrate each other in July. I was honored to be part of that gathering several times. When Duepree was in the hospital in Toledo, Duane prayed a powerful prayer. I'll remember his faith and kindness. Condolences to Connie and the entire family. I'll be there.
