“ I am the son of Harry and Liz Lindstrom. My father had known Ed for decades. I became accustomed to Ed's visit's to the farm and many hours of "wisdom" he bestowed upon me and my brothers as we stood around outside watching hip take unbelievably massive dips of Skoal.

As a huge baseball fan, I always thought Ed resembled Pete Rose and the two could have been brothers.

Ed had to me the uncanny ability to stop by to ask my father a question and proceed to keep Harry outside and talk for what seemed like hours.

Bottom line, I liked him.

My family and I are saddened for your loss.

God Bless

“ So sorry to hear of Ed's passing. I have a lot of great memories thanks to this man. His sharing of whitetail deer knowledge has led me on a life long passion. I owe so much to him for his mentoring and friendship that was second to none. He will be missed by all who knew him. God speed my friend and keep a seat open at the camp fire for me so we can once again reminisce about our day in the deer woods.
