“ My Sis, it would take more time and paper than we both could afford to tell about all the times we shard together! From growing up in the hills of Tip Top , Kentucky and playing in the dirt and ditches and woods, weeding the garden and tobacco field to the flat lands of the mid-west and Indiana where the little girl in you turned into a woman and began an adventure with your own family. I will miss your sense of humor, your stubborn streak, and your cooking! You did your momma proud! The journey on earth is over for you and you will be missed by all of your children and brothers and sisters so now time to start a new adventure on the other side. Rest in Peace my Sis, you have earned it!

Faye, was not only a wonderful friend but a great co-worker. She and I worked together for many years at Coldwater hospital in Ohio. She was a dedicated, hard-working, loyal employee. I loved her orneriness, her love for God, and her spunk. She would tell it like it was. I know she is in heaven and she might be cooking some pinto beans and cornbread for everyone.
