“ Uncle Norbert and cousin Mary, my deep condolences to you on the loss of your wife and mother. I can't say that I feel I knew Aunt lone extremely well, having spent a reasonably small amount of time with or around her. But when I think of her I quickly remember how grounded and solid a person she was, and always pleasant to be around. I am very grateful that I got to visit with her when I was in La Porte in September, and to see her having great fun singing along with me, my mom and dad, and others who wandered in to hear the music. May your own numerous memories steady you and comfort you as you adjust to the changes ahead.
