On January 22nd, 2022 baby Jesse James McIntosh Jr. became one of Heavens newest little angels. “ I thought the Lord was blessing me with another grandbaby. But that wasn't meant to be. He obviously had bigger plans for baby Jesse. I am grateful for the time we did have him and he will not have to struggle any more. I was so honored to be able to hold him and rock him. I will be forever grateful to Abby for allowing me that honor. My mom absolutely adored her grandchildren but unfortunately never got to meet my grandson, Cody. I told Jesse all about her and asked her to please watch for him. He is now in heaven with his great-grandma and I'm sure neither could be any happier. I will love him and miss him until the day that I will see him again. Until then I will cherish the memories. Grandma Chris
