“ Just today learned of Joann’s death and am sad to hear that news. We went to school together at dear old NJHS and she was a joy in my life. Her poise, her grace and her wonderful sense of humor were admirable. Getting together in later years at class reunions were such a pleasure and I dubbed her Pierogi Queen of northern Indiana. All my memories of her make me smile. My sincere sympathy to Steve and her beloved daughters. Sincerely, Judy Troike Dobbins

“ I'm so sorry to read of Joann's passing. It was a pleasure for me to meet her and spend time with her at Avalon Springs. Her conversations with Daniela in Polish were a delight to listen to, even though I had no idea what they were saying!

Sending my condolences to all of you.

“ So sorry to hear of Joann’s passing. I was a classmate and friend of her younger sister Alice. I always admired Joann for her poise, style, and work ethic. Always perfectly groomed and friendly. Alice and I graduated from same HS as Joann in 1962. I remember enjoying many visits to their farm home during those high school days. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to Alice, Ann, and the rest of her family. RIP JOANN 💕🙏🌸💕
