“ Aunt Kathryn always showed us how much she loved us by sharing her delicious food and baked goods with us. I can remember many, many buckets of blueberries, jars of jam, and so many treats from the heart. God be with everyone as she is laid to rest.

“ As I returned to the evening shift at the hospital with a 3 year old and an infant, Kathryn made all the concerns I had simply disappear. I don't think I would have gone through with it without her. Her gentle, sweet spirit and her vast knowledge of raising children, made her perfect. As the girls grew we were also blessed with Bau girls as babysitters. I send my love and sympathy to the family. I look forward to spending eternity with one of our Lord's Saints. With great love and prayers, Sandra Dietrich.
