“ My heart breaks for each and everyone of Mary's family. She was one in a million. I am so glad I knew Mary as my hairdresser and friend and sad I had not seen her since we moved. One of the kindest people I knew with strength and wisdom to match. Mary always seemed to know what to say. I am thinking of and praying for the Ingram family. Lorraine Cox ❤️🙏

“ We love our Aunt Mary, she has left a hole in the family that can never be filled. She kept us all up to date on family matters, attended every shower, wedding, and family gathering. She was an invaluable resource on the details of our family history, she was the keeper of treasured family recipes. Her greatest accomplishment was in her 4 sons. They showed great devotion to their mother during her illness, never leaving her side for a moment. We will miss her greatly.
