“ Our Deepest condolences to the Brown's in your time of sorrow. As Pat, Heather and Tim are probably aware I've known Randy since gradeschool and we even worked together for a couple of years part time when my Father and I had our family business. He was always one you could count on and truly call "friend". I pray that God will give your families the strength to get through these difficult days & the love and caring from others will see you through. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
