“ Erin, Erik, Evan, Ethan Jon and Kris,
My thoughts and prayers have been with you through this journey. Always remember it is not about just the beginning and the end as we say good bye to your dad. Now we think about your dad's date of birth and date of passing and you will see it frequently, I encourage you to look at the DASH between those dates. It's all about the dash! During that time he loved you with the most he had. He was the dad that was always on the floor playing, walked behind you for hours while you toddled and allowed you to all grow into unique individuals. The dash between those dates is you! One of his most prized gifts were those grandchildren that he loved to the moon and back. Always think of his dash, what he gave to all of you in life. I pray that you feel his peace in knowing he is no longer in pain or suffering and he showed us a new meaning to brave. Let's get together and celebrate that DASH, his love of life.
Love always! Aunt Becky
