“ Sharon was one great friend when we were in our 20s we would go dancing on Wednesday night after work and every night until Sunday rest and start again on Wednesday many a time she stayed at my apt and we would call her Dad to let him know she was safe! Her Mom and Dad were sweet people! I have so many memories!

“ I met Sharon Summerfield about five years ago getting a haircut at Crystal's in Plymouth. She had such a great personality that lite up the room. The first time we meet it was like we were old friends instead strangers. She invited me to go dancing at Blue Chip Casnio .I out found that day she loved Country Music as much as I did. We hit it off that day, and Sharon's personality made it so easy to talk about anything. I will miss Sharon alot but Heaven has gained another angel..Rest in Peace Sharon!!!!

“ My grandparents, and I have known Sharon ever since she moved to Plymouth many years ago. She was an amazing friend, and neighbor. When we heard of her passing today (February 22nd) we were shocked... Our condolences, and prayers are with her family as well as her closest friends. She will be sorely missed. Sincerely, Jarid Blackburn, Henry Joseph, and Carol Joseph
