“ Wayne and Judy were more like brother and sister to us Hendrickson kids than cousins. We lived three houses apart, and we all grew up together! We loved played hide and seek! The neighbors kids joined in. We had a blast! Once I ran into the clothes line and went to school the next day with what looked like a ‘noose line’ around my neck. Wayne laughed about that. He loved playing ‘fit and dash with Jesus every Sunday after we got off the Sunday school bus. We all cried together, laughed together-all the way throughout life. We all learned the Bible Stories well because all week long we would play ‘quiz’ games to see who could remember most about those wonderful Bible stories! We loved it. When Wayne and Ruth invited us over-we could tell that Jesus resided there in their home! Their testimonies will follow them right into Heaven. What a reunion we WILL have when we are all gathered together there one day! It’s just that Wayne got to see the precious face of Jesus before we did. But that’s ok. Soon we will all get to see Him-face to face. His coming for us is sooner than we think. Thank you Wayne..and Ruth for your precious LIVING testimony.
